HISTORICAL MAGAZINE;

AND

NOTES AND QUERIES

CONCERNING THE

ANTIQUITIES, HISTORY, AND, BIOGRAPHY OF AMERICA.

This Magazine was commenced in January 1857, for the purpose of furnishing a medium of intercommunication between historical societies, authors, and students of history in different parts of the country; and thus supplying a want that had long been felt in the literary world. The work is the organ of various historical societies and kindred associations in the United States, and contains condensed official reports of their proceedings, and the most valuable and interesting papers read before them.

Another department of this work is devoted to "Notes and Queries" on the plan of the English periodical of that name; which, as comprising many subjects not strictly historical, such as bibliography, and local customs, will interest the general reader. This section will be found very useful to historians and others, who, while tracing an historical investigation, or ancestry of New England, Southern or Western derivation, may be unable to prosecute their inquiries in person upon the spot. Every item relating to our early customs or history—every fact to be gleaned from English towns or country histories—bearing upon the settlers of this country, or their colonial history, will be diligently sought for.

The cooperation of all gentlemen engaged in literary and historical pursuits, in every part of our country, is earnestly requested. The work is the organ of no party, section, or clique; but is devoted to the encouragement of historical inquiry in every portion of the United States, from all parts of which contributions have been received.

The work is printed in small quarto form, and published in monthly numbers of thirty-two pages each, of the size of the London Notes and Queries, at two dollars per annum. Gentlemen who are willing to encourage the work by becoming subscribers, will confer a favor by remitting to the publisher.

MONOCHROME OF WASHINGTON.

The design for an Engraving from "Peale's Washington," as formerly announced by the author, not being realized according to his intention, all thought of it, for the time, was suspended. As the design could not be accomplished by confiding the task to another hand, he has been induced to undertake, to a limited extent, a more effective substitute—THE HEAD, FULL SIZE, finished in Crayon, on a lithographic ground. These Monochromes, by himself, from his original Portrait, he trusts will be favorably appreciated. To be had at WILLIAMS, STEVENS, & CO. 353 Broadway, N.Y.
